

■ Vocabulary List with Definitions, Examples & Uzbek Translations

Word / Phrase	Definition	Example	Uzbek Translation
Take a year off	To stop working or studying for a year, usually to rest or pursue other interests.	She decided to take a year off after graduating before starting her career.	Bir yil tanaffus qilish
Take unpaid leave	To be absent from work without receiving payment, often for personal reasons.	He requested to take unpaid leave to travel abroad with his family.	Maosh to'lanmaydigan ta'til olish
Case study	A detailed analysis of a particular person, group, or situation for research or learning.	The students analyzed a business case study in class.	Amaliy misol / Tadqiqot misoli
Pretention	An attempt to make something seem more important or impressive than it is.	His pretention of being an expert annoyed everyone.	Da'vo, havoyi da'vat
Household budget	A plan for managing income and expenses in a family or household.	They created a household budget to save money for their children's education.	Oila byudjeti
Put money aside	To save money for future use.	She puts money aside every month for her summer holiday.	Pulni tejab qo'yish
Nursing care	Medical and personal care provided by nurses for people who are ill or elderly.	The elderly woman required full-time nursing care.	Hamshiralik parvarishi
Set up initiatives	To establish new plans or projects to achieve certain goals.	The government set up initiatives to support small businesses.	Tashabbuslarni yo'lga qo'yish
Well-informed risk	A risk taken with sufficient knowledge and preparation.	Investing in the stock market can be a well-informed risk if researched properly.	Yetarli ma'lumot asosidagi tavakkal