

■ Come to attention

Definition: To stand or sit straight in a formal posture, often as a sign of respect or discipline.

Example: The soldiers immediately came to attention when the officer entered the room.

Uzbek: E'tiborga kelmoq / Tik turmoq (harbiy intizom holati)

■ Get to grips with

Definition: To begin to understand and deal with something difficult or challenging.

Example: She finally got to grips with the new software after a week of training.

Uzbek: Qiyinchilikni tushunib, uddalamoq

■ Colossal

Definition: Extremely large or great.

Example: The company made a colossal mistake in its financial planning.

Uzbek: Ulg'aygan, ulkan

■ Stall

Definition: To stop making progress or to delay something.

Example: The negotiations stalled because neither side wanted to compromise.

Uzbek: To'xtab qolmoq, cho'zilmoq

■ Cautious

Definition: Careful to avoid danger or mistakes.

Example: He is always cautious when crossing the busy street.

Uzbek: Ehtiyotkor

■ Shut down

Definition: To stop operating or to close a business, machine, or system.

Example: The factory was shut down due to safety issues.

Uzbek: Yopmoq, to'xtatmoq

■ Intrinsic

Definition: Belonging naturally; essential.

Example: Creativity is intrinsic to human nature.

Uzbek: Asliy, ichki mohiyatga oid

■ Foregone conclusion

Definition: A result that is certain to happen.

Example: It was a foregone conclusion that the champion would win the match.

Uzbek: Oldindan ma'lum natija

■ Muddle

Definition: A state of confusion or disorder.

Example: His notes were in such a muddle that he could not revise properly.

Uzbek: Aralash, chalkashlik

■ Computer literate

Definition: Having sufficient knowledge and skill to use computers effectively.

Example: Nowadays, being computer literate is essential for most jobs.

Uzbek: Kompyuter savodli

■ Phase (something) out

Definition: To gradually stop using or providing something.

Example: The company plans to phase out old technology by next year.

Uzbek: Bosqichma-bosqich tugatmoq

■ Induction

Definition: The process of introducing someone to a new job, organization, or position.

Example: All new employees must attend an induction program.

Uzbek: Kirish, tanishtirish jarayoni